Treat mom to a gift that raises money for breast-cancer education and early-detection programs. The Pink Mini Scoop & Measure’s straight, beveled edge makes transferring foods from cutting board to cookware a cinch. The pink, plumeria-scented Hope for a Cure Candle from For Every Home serves as a gentle reminder for every woman to schedule routine exams for early breast-cancer detection. Tuck in a personalized note to show Mom how much you really care. Better yet, let her know For Every Home donates 100 percent of the proceeds from their Hope for a Cure candles towards the company’s “Think Pink for Life” breast-cancer awareness program. She’ll be proud to light it every time.
